

Fundamentals of sites and hierarchies for Configuration Manager

Primary Site: It is a standalone site. It is suitable for smaller deployments and can be used to manage devices without having to install additional site.

Secondary Site: A secondary site can only be installed as a child site below a primary site.

It extends reach of primary site to manage devices and in locations that have slow internet connection to the primary site

Example:

teams.microsoft.com